Dear Hiring Representative,

I am applying to the Turning Point of Central California – Client Service Provider position that I saw posted on the organization webpage. This position offers a great opportunity for me to be able to work side-by-side with experienced professionals and peers, offering experiences that captured my attention. This job position seems to fit well with my education and interests.

As you can see on my resume, I have been a volunteer peer mentor with the Focus Forward Program that works with the Fresno County Probation Juvenile Justice Campus for about a year and a half now. This position entails mentoring juvenile youths within and without the campus from different backgrounds, most having experiences with drugs, gangs, and violence. My role is to support in their growth whether that is to be a teen parent, getting back to school, or practicing job interviews to gain a job.

Along with that, I also have over two years of experience in working with a wide age range of individuals who have mental illnesses or special needs. I have worked with children on the Autism Spectrum, adults and young adults with learning disabilities and a variety of special needs, and have over four years of knowledge in Psychological studies. I have experience working with families of children and youths that I have helped and mentored, as well as worked in a variety of positions that has honed my leadership, interpersonal, and decision-making skills to be take initiative and be a team player.

I would welcome the opportunity to review my qualifications and background in great detail. Please feel free to call me at (phone) or reach me by email at (email). I look forward to hearing back from you. Thank you very much for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Yeng Vue
