
Yeng Vue

Summary of Skills:

- Bilingual (Hmong and English)
- Strong analytical thinking ability – Research experience with collecting, analyzing, and compiling data
- Takes initiative, self-motivated – Workplace experience with self-pacing methods to certain deadlines and presentations
- Strong judgment and decision-making skills – Leadership experience in a Judiciary position to follow and enforce Bylaws

Education:

California State University, Fresno (Fresno State)

- Bachelor of Arts, Psychology, Minor Criminology, GPA 3.71 Expected May 2020

Edison High School

- Diploma, GPA 4.27 June 2016

Work Experience:

Fresno State TRIO Student Support Services, Peer Mentor June 2018 – Present

- Mentor students using academic planning
- Plan social events and lunch and learn
- Assist Students Emotionally
- Present resources in learning sessions
- Create designs such as flyers, forms, etc.
- Refer to resources as needed

Fresno State College of Science and Mathematics BOND, Instructional Student Assistant August 2018 – Present

- Create and lead presentations
- Assist students in class with questions
- Help lead discussions
- Assist professor with assignments and grading

Leadership/Activities:

Fresno State Campus Involvement Ambassador August 2018 – Present

- Facilitate leadership workshops of 30+ students
- Encourage student campus involvement
- Inform and connect students on campus
- Meet with students to finalize interests

Fresno State Hmong Student Association (HmSA), Judiciary Officer September 2016 – May 2018

- Resolved problems that developed
- Oversaw club members
- Facilitated general meetings
- Maintained a neutral position
- Updated and modified Bylaws of the club
- Checked and balanced the other officers
- Kept the order of the club
- Lead voting and general discussions

Volunteer Services:

Crisis Text Line Crisis Counselor, Volunteer September 2018 – Present

- Incorporate Empathy to help texter not feel alone in their situation
- Help de-escalate dangerous thoughts for the texters through active listening
- Help guide and support texters to discover they have the tools they need to get through tough situations

Wayfinder, Volunteer September 2018 – Present

- 115+ hours supporting 35+ students with learning disabilities
- Support students with learning disabilities at Fresno State through community volunteers
- Incorporate client-centered support and services to the advancement of the students
- Assist in facilitating the activities and community volunteers for the students

Accomplishments/Achievements:

- Certificate of Recognition, Executive Officer of the Hmong Student Association June 2017 & June 2018
- Certificate of Completion, Fresno State Leadership Academy November 2016
- Certificate of Recognition, National Forensic League September 2014 – June 2016